

Aztec Attack Codex Rubric

- √ indicates full credit for section. Point value is in parentheses.
- A circled direction indicates what needed to be improved or corrected to earn full credit.

____(1) accordion-folded

____(2) written from a non-Aztec point-of-view

____(3) detailed hand-drawn pictures that fill the space

____(3) colored completely

____(1) title page

____(5) five pictorial (shown in pictures) story panels (sections)

- Beginning – Tell what life was like for your people before the Aztec came.
- Middle –
 - What did you see as the Aztec approached your settlement?
 - What happened when they arrived?
 - How did you act after they attacked?
- End – Show what life was like for your people after the Aztec conquered you.

____(5) One sentence captions for each story panel, written as if the non-Aztec person is speaking and telling about the events.

