

Explorer Research Record Sheet

Directions: Use sources such as nonfiction books, encyclopedias, textbooks, and possibly the internet, to complete the following information about your explorer.

Explorer's full name: _____

Explorer's birth country: _____

Birth date: _____ Death date: _____

Name of the country (or countries) for which this explorer worked (while exploring):

List the places your explorer discovered or explored and the dates of these explorations:

What type of ship did your explorer use? _____

Who helped pay for your explorer's trip(s)? _____

Explain why your explorer's discoveries are important. Include your explorer's reasons for exploring.

List all of the supplies your explorer needed (keep in mind the year of your voyage).

Write a personal quotation that your explorer said (or might have said).

Use this space for any additional facts that you found interesting or unusual about your explorer.

Draw or copy each of the following: (put a ✓ on the line when you have it ready) _____ a picture of the kind of ship that your explorer used for his voyage _____ a map showing where your explorer began his voyage, the water routes he took, and the land areas that he explored.

_____ a picture of your explorer