

Exodus 3 Essay Brainstorm Guide

Notice that in Exodus 3, God reassures Moses by telling him that he is listening to the God of his honored ancestors: Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. You will relate this to your own experiences by writing about three trustworthy people who have shared with you something appealing about God.

Complete this brainstorm sheet using detailed phrases (not full sentences).

Name one person who has shared with you about God: _____

List 3-5 things that person has said or done to teach you about God:

What is it about this person's relationship with God that makes you interested in learning more or growing closer to God yourself?

Describe what God is like, based on what this person has told, taught, or showed you:

Tell how this view of God is similar to another way you have learned about God. (ex. in a particular prayer, scripture reading, or other text)

Exodus 3 Essay Brainstorm Guide

Name a second person who has shared with you about God: _____

List 3-5 things that person has said or done to teach you about God:

What is it about this person's relationship with God that makes you interested in learning more or growing closer to God yourself?

Describe what God is like, based on what this person has told, taught, or showed you:

Tell how this view of God is similar to another way you have learned about God. (ex. in a particular prayer, scripture reading, or other text)

Exodus 3 Essay Brainstorm Guide

Name a third person who has shared with you about God: _____

List 3-5 things that person has said or done to teach you about God:

What is it about this person's relationship with God that makes you interested in learning more or growing closer to God yourself?

Describe what God is like, based on what this person has told, taught, or showed you:

Tell how this view of God is similar to another way you have learned about God. (ex. in a particular prayer, scripture reading, or other text)